Appreciation

To all general and special committees and organizations who have responded so generously to the call for assistance to make our Wasatch County Home Coming celebration a success, we express our most heartfelt appreciation, and we believe that through our united efforts this event will be inscribed in the history of Wasatch County as one of its most important events.

Sincerely Yours,
Wasatch County Home Coming General Committee.

GREETINGS FROM HEBER

By Mayor J. E. McMullin.

To the Indian War Veterans, Pioneers, their Sons and Daughters and all who have come to do them honor: The City of Heber extends greetings and bids you welcome.

It is an honor to have you hold your gathering here. May you have happiness and joy in meeting old comrades, in renewing old acquaintances and in forming new bonds and associations.

All honor to the men and women who conquered the barren wastes and made possible the comforts and luxuries we now enjoy in our great State.

May the memory of your sacrifices, toil and hardships ever be sacred to those who come after you, and may they be instilled with the same indomitable courage and spirit in the solving of their problems.

Again the City Officials bid you welcome, and trust your visit will be most pleasant.

System in Finance

The ability to lay aside systematically a part of your weekly or monthly income and make it work for you, is the chief element of success in this world. This applies when you save money for investment, old age or other future comforts.

By planning to save systematically you make it possible to accomplish things that by ordinary methods of accumulating money seem impossible.

We solicit small weekly or monthly deposits.

OLD BLACK JOE

Gone are the days when my heart was young and gay,
Gone are my friends from the cotton fields away,
Gone from this earth to a better land I know,
I hear their gentle voices calling "Old Black Joe."
I'm coming, I'm coming,
For my head is bending low,
I hear those gentle voices calling "Old Black Joe."

GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

My grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf,
So it stood ninety years on the floor;
It was taller by half than the old man himself,
Though it weighed not a pennyweight more.
It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born,
And was always his treasure and pride;
But it stopped short—never to go again,
When the old man died.
Ninety years without slumbering,
(tick-tock, tick-tock)
His life's second numbering.
(tick-tock, tick-tock)
But it stopped short—never to go again,
When the old man died.

SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the tear drops,
As the sun beams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see;
But the smiles that fill my life with sunshine
Are the smiles that you give to me.

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind,
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days of auld lang syne.

CHORUS

For auld lang syne, my boys,
For auld lang syne,
We'll have a thought of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.

CHORUS

We two have run about the braes
And pulled the daisies fine;
We've wandered many a weary foot
Since days of auld lang syne.

CHORUS

(Extra verse for the hand carts)
We two have walked across the plains
From morn till sun's decline;
We'll have a thought of kindness yet
For days of auld lang syne.

HOWDY!

Oh, when we meet together,
Together, together,
No matter what the weather,
Or what the time of day;
Let's grab a hand and shake it,
And shake it, and shake it;
And as for greeting make it,
That good old-fashioned way.
How-dy do Hen, How-dy do Jen,
How-dy do Brother Hugh,
How-dy do, Sister Prue,
How-dy do Bill, How-dy do Lil,
How-dy do Lew and Sue, How-dy do.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.
Our father's God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, Our King.

LONG, LONG TRAIL

There's a long long trail a winding,
Into the land of our dreams;
Where the nightengales are singing,
And the white moon beams;
There's a long long night of waiting,
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long long trail with you.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
The corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy and bright;
Bye'n bye hard times come a-knockin' at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home good night.
Weep no more my lady, O! weep no more today!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home.
For the old Kentucky home, far away.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we halled, at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say, does the Star Spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

WHEN YOU AND I WERE YOUNG MAGGIE

I wandered today to the hills Maggie,
To watch the scene below;
The creek and the rusty old mill, Maggie,
Where we sat in the long, long ago.
The green grove is gone from the hills, Maggie,
Where first the daisies sprung;
The rusty old mill is still, Maggie,
Since you and I were young.

CHORUS

And now we are aged and gray, Maggie,
The trials of life are nearly done;
Let us sing of the days that are gone, Maggie,
When you and I were young.

OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Way down upon the Swanee river,
Far, far away;
There's where my heart is turning ever
There's where the old folks stay.
All up and down the old creation,
Sadly I roam,
Still longing for the old plantation,
And for the old folks at home.
All the world is sad and dreary,
Everywhere I roam,
Oh, darkies how my heart grows weary
Far from the old folks at home.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Smile the while you kiss me sad adieu,
When the clouds roll by I'll come to you
Then the sky will seem more blue,
Down in lover's lane my dearie.
Wedding bells will ring so merrily;
Every tear will be a memory;
So wait and pray each night for me
Till we meet again.

HARD TIMES COME AGAIN NO MORE

Let us pause in life's pleasure
And count its many tears,
While we all sup sorrow with the poor;
There's a song that will linger forever in our ears—
O! hard times come again no more.

CHORUS

'Tis the song, the sigh of the weary,
Hard times, hard times! come again no more,
Many days you have lingered around our cabin door,
O! hard times come again no more!
While we seek mirth and beauty, and music light and gay,
There are frail forms fainting at the door,
Though their voices are silent, their pleading looks would say—
O! hard times come again no more!

CHORUS

There's a pale, drooping maiden, who toils her life away,
With a warm heart whose better days are o'er,
Though her voice would be merry, 'tis sighing all the day—
O! hard times come again no more!

CHORUS

'Tis a sigh that is wafted across the troubled wave;
'Tis a wail that is heard upon the shore;
'Tis a dirge that is murmured around the lonely grave—
O! hard times come again no more!

CHORUS

"Doodah Doodah"

(Tune "Doodah")

(Written to commemorate the 60th anniversary of several families arriving in Utah in 1862, by Wm. Lindsay.)

'Tis sixty years since we crossed the plains, dooda, dooda,
In the heat & the dust, in the wind & the rain, dooda, dooda day.
But we're very glad we came and now we're here to stay,
So let us have a jolly time and celebrate the day.

When first we saw those teamster men, dooda, dooda,
They looked mighty rough but we knew they were friends, dooda, dooda, day.

Their big long whips they'd crack and the oxen they would whack
Calling whoa ha Buck and gee up Bright, come up here Tom and Jack.

When we came here in sixty-two, dooda, dooda,
The town was small and the people were few, dooda, dooda day.
This valley then was new and covered with sagebrush too,
But we settled down in this little town & along with it we grew.

We used to drive the slow ox teams, dooda, dooda,
And we dressed in denims & home made jeans, dooda, dooda, day.
Our shoes sometimes were bad, one pair was all we had,
And when we got them mended up we surely felt real glad.

Log cabins then were all the go, dooda, dooda,
And we sometimes had three feet of snow, dooda, dooda, day.
Our dirt roofs they would leak when the rain came in a streak
And caused the women folks to say "these dirt roofs are a freak."

But now we own fine homes and lands, dooda, dooda,
And all the wealth that we can stand, dooda, dooda, day.
In place of the slow ox teams we ride in Limousines
And travel forty miles an hour, and that's no joke or a dream.

UTAH VETERANS (Tune America)

Comrades so true and dear,
Gladly we meet you here
This happy day.
Once more we clasp the hand,
Once more united stand,
A noble gallant band
Of veterans gray.

Soldiers of early days,
In songs of joy and praise,
Join hearts and voice,
Murmuring breeze and rill,
Echo from crag and hill;
Your songs our bosoms thrill,
Bids us rejoice.

Our daughters and our sons,
We gray-haired veterans,
Have this desire—
That when our life is o'er,
And we can meet no more,
Keep burning as of yore,
Old camp fire.

Look at its flames so bright,
Make it a beacon light,
To guide our way.
Treasure within your breast,
Keep on your minds impressed,
Deeds of those heroes blest,
Of Black Hawk days.

WHEN THE ANGEL CALLS THE ROLL

(Tune: Just before the Battle Mother)
Many mighty ones have fallen,
Sons of Utah true and brave,
Sleep within her peaceful valleys,
In an honored soldier's grave.
Ceased has every sound of battle—
Peace now reigns throughout the land.
We no longer hear the war-cry,
From the savage Indian hand.

CHORUS

Comrades hear the dear old bugle
Sounding from the other shore,
Where our brave, departed heroes,
Dwell in peace for evermore.

Comrades see our ranks are thinning,
Let us rally while we may,
Side by side in sweet reunion,
As we rallied for the fray.
Soldiers, veterans, still remaining,
Who were comrades in the past,
Keep, O keep love's camp-fire burning
In each bosom to the last.

CHORUS

We are marching slowly onward,
Marching on life's evening shore;
We, ere long will cross the river,
Soon life's battles will be o'er.
When the angel calls the roll,
Calling forth each faithful soul,
When we hear the bugle sounding,
May no comrades dear be missing.

OPENING GUN

(Tune: Our Mountain Home So Dear)
Comrades so true and brave,
Who fought our homes to save,
Long years ago,
We greet you as of yore,
War's conflicts now are o'er,
Peace to you evermore,
Peace to our foe.

Long may our campfires burn,
And youth their friendships turn
Kind thoughts to you.
May you live long to know,
Honor and love will grow,
May the respect we owe,
Be lasting, true.

With silvered heads you stand,
A gallant, happy band,
Of veterans gray.
May you this life endure,
May you sweet rest secure,
Now your reward is sure
On reckoning day.

Comrades we pledge to thee,
Our help your aid to be,
While you sojourn.
On this proud land and free,
No more oppressed to be,
Long may you live to see
Your campfires burn.
